

Bridging School Leadership Teams

Enhancing the Principal- School Counselor Relationship Toolkit

“The Principal-School Counselor Relationship Toolkit comes from a multi-year research project undertaken by the College Board’s National Office for School Counselor Advocacy (NOSCA), to learn what principals and school counselors think is important in their relationships, how they view the current status of their own relationships within their schools, and what effective Principal-Counselor relationships might look like.”

To read the Toolkit, click here >>