

Planning Tools for Student Supports

Comprehensive Four-Year Postsecondary Plan

---

A sample skill development model from Kelly High School so Counselors and other educators can target the academic, social-emotional, and postsecondary domains for students at each grade level. A snapshot of the plan for seniors is included in this Toolkit.

For the complete four-year plan, click here >>

Comprehensive Four-Year Postsecondary Plan

		Comprehensive Four-Year Postsecondary Plan
Senior Year: Graduating and Enrolling
	Skills	Objective	Setting
Social/ Emotional	Self-regulation	Students learn about stress management, wellness, and self-advocacy	Classroom workshops and Social/Emotional Small Group
	Communication	Students learn how to communicate with college and career representatives	Classroom workshops
	Safe decision-making	Students make responsible decisions regarding their personal and professional life	Classroom workshops and Socratic seminars
	Growth mindset	Students recognize that skills and knowledge are developed over time (not innate)	Assemblies
Academic	Study skill development for college success	Students solidify note-taking skills	College professor panel
	Time management (balancing competing demands)	Students learn how to create and manage a college schedule that includes class time, work, and social activities	Classroom project/presentation
	Organizational skills	Students solidify organizational skills that will be useful in college	Classroom check-ins
	Developing a college identity	Students are active participants in their college application and decision process	One-on-ones
			Social/Emotional Small Group
			Alumni panels
	How to apply to a postsecondary institution	Students become experts in all parts of the college application process: re researching different schools, writing applications, and requesting appropriate documentation and references from staff	Parent Night
Classroom workshops
How to decide on the best fit college	Students and parents learn about verification and enrollment requirements as well as factors to consider when selecting a college	Tiered interventions
		College Choice Week: classroom workshops and Socratic seminars
			Parent phone calls